Dear Mr. Lundahl:

The National Cryptologic School is pleased to announce Class 01-71 of the National Senior Cryptologic Course, which will be given from 19 October to 18 December 1970 at the National Cryptologic Course Center located at the National Security Agency Friendship Annex.

Because of the interest you have expressed in sending someone to this course, you are invited to send one student.

Orders written for military personnel should attach them for administrative and logistical support to one of the military support elements situated on Fort Meade. A list of these organizations is attached. A limited number of transient quarters (BOQs) may be available for course participants. For those participants who do not choose to use these facilities or for whom there are no longer any available, certificates of non-availability of quarters will be issued. Arrangements for rooms have been made with the Colony Seven Motor Inn next to Fort Meade. Bus transportation to and from the motel has been arranged. The procedure for making reservations is attached.

The nominee must have a TOP SECRET clearance with CRYPTO authorization and be indoctrinated for Category III COMINT and [REDACTED] access. Certification of clearance, CRYPTO authorization and Category III COMINT indoctrination must be transmitted electrically by your cognizant Special Security Officer (SSO) to the National Security Agency,
